Attention Fredericksburg Emmaus Community

The 4th day committee wants your 4th day testimonies. They don't have to be long, just tell us what God's doing in your 4th day, or how teaming, sponsoring, being involved in a reunion group, or attending monthly gatherings has changed your life. We will review it and if accepted, include it in the newsletter on a monthly basis. So if you'd like to share with us how God has used your Emmaus experience in any of these areas, please email your testimony to Cam Noden at: twonodens@juno.com for review. I'll be looking forward to hearing from you!

From the Community Lay Director

HELLO! I hope everyone is finding interesting and fun ways to beat the heat.

PILGRIMS! It is time for our community to submit pilgrim applications for the fall walks. Please think about the people in your life who are active in their churches and consider sponsoring them for the Walk to Emmaus. Sponsors are responsible for submitting the pilgrim application and fees; for pulling personal agape together; to take the pilgrim to Camp Happyland Thursday night; to participate in Sponsor's Hour and Candlelight; to hear the joy at Closing on Sunday; to arrange for the pilgrim to participate in a 4th Day meeting; and to bring the pilgrim to the next Gathering. This is a big task but it is so rewarding. Get those applications in! Let's fill the talk room!

GATHERING! Our August 13 Gathering will be held at Wright's Chapel UMC in Ladysmith. This is another opportunity to visit an out-of-town church and to be in fellowship together. Looking ahead, the September Gathering will be held at Antioch UMC. Mark your calendar and bring a friend.

FALL WALKS! The fall walks will be here before you know it. The Orientation Meeting will be Friday, August 26. The Weekend Lay Directors, Harry Tillman and Lola McDonald, are excited to begin teaming. The walk dates are: October 20-23 (men) and November 17-20 (women). Please consider how you can be in service for these walks.

PRAYERS! Please continue to pray for the Fredericksburg Emmaus community and for FE 84 and 85. If you have a prayer request that needs immediate attention, email our Daily Prayer Chain (FredEmmausPrayers@Yahoo.com) to be lifted up by our prayer warriors. If you would like to be a member of this ministry, contact Dennis Warne (WarneDM@comcast.net).

DECOLORES! Grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Blessings to all ya'll.

From the Community Spiritual Director

Hello from your Community Spiritual Director. Once again I want to state that I am here to serve the community to the best of my ability and each of you are the community. If anyone has a need or a problem please do not hesitate to contact me. I can be reached through North Stafford Baptist Church.

I wanted to write to you this month about something that is critical to our existence as people of God. A little thing that we call "faith" (Hebrews 11:6). The Scriptures say that without faith it is impossible to please God. We are also told that with faith the size of a grain of mustard seed we can command mountains to move and they will obey. Yet many Christians in our world today and even many among us remain mired in depression, doubt, and fear. We are not living victoriously for God, or experiencing breakthrough because we are not living lives of faith. So what is the problem? We believe in God, we have been washed by the blood by grace - through faith, so why are we continually defeated and live in fear of our finances, our health, or any number of other things we count as important in this life?

I believe the answer can be found in a close examination of Hebrews 11. We look at the patriarchs and heroes of the faith in Scripture and many of us think, "Oh if only I could have their faith, if only I could be like them, I wouldn't struggle through the problems I have." We tend to set these men and women up on pedestals simply because they are written about in the Bible. Yet as we examine each of them we find that they were ordinary folks beset by ordinary temptation and sin. Noah, after being used by God to save humanity, shortly after coming off the Ark, was found drunk and naked in his tent. Abraham lied about his relationship with Sarah because he was afraid for his life. Then his son Isaac did the same thing with Rebekah. David, a man after God's own heart, was an adulterer and murderer. Each of these Bible heroes were men and women just like you and me.

You see, there was nothing in them that made them great. They did none of the things that they did under their own power or will. Rather, they were ordinary men and women being directed and used by an extraordinary God to accomplish His purposes. You do not have to be extraordinary to do extraordinary things, you simply have to trust God and follow Him unconditionally wherever He leads.

Fourth Day Testimony

As most of you are aware the purpose of the Emmaus weekend experience is to provide a time of spiritual renewal and discipleship development to support us in our Fourth Day lives. For me the weekend did just that. It helped me connect more closely with God through the Holy Spirit, it motivated me to reconnect with ministries within my local church, and it provided the opportunity to connect with other believers throughout the area.

Although there are many Fourth Day ministry venues, for me the monthly gatherings are the most vital in helping maintain these “connections.” It is through the Gatherings that I am reminded of the importance of my reunion group; it is through the Gatherings that I have learned new songs of praise and experienced new forms of worship; it is through the Gatherings that others have prayed for me and I have prayed for them; it is through the Gatherings that I have been encouraged by hearing of others’ struggles and blessings experienced in their Fourth Day journeys; it is through the Gatherings that I have maintained and developed personal friendships; it is through Gatherings that I have learned of servant opportunities such as teaming, sponsoring, providing agape, board membership, prayer support, weekend service, etc.

For me Gatherings are the staging ground to witness and experience the Body of Christ in action. Gatherings provide that drink of water I need to help keep me refreshed in my Fourth Day. I hope and pray to see you at future Gatherings, so you can be a part of my Fourth Day and I yours.
