4th Day Testimonies

The 4th day committee wants your 4th day testimonies. They don't have to be long, just tell us what God's doing in your 4th day, or how teaming, sponsoring, being involved in a reunion group, or attending monthly gatherings has changed your life. We will review it and if accepted, include it in the newsletter on a monthly basis. So if you'd like to share with us how God has used your Emmaus experience in any of these areas, please email your testimony to Cam Noden at: twonodens@juno.com for review. I'll be looking forward to hearing from you!

From the Community Lay Director

HELLO. Greetings to you, my brothers and sisters! I hope that life is treating everyone well.

FRIENDS AND FAMILY. We offer our sincere condolences to Tom and Bonnie Wells following the death of their son, Zack. We know there are no words that can ease their pain; all we can offer is our love and support.

GATHERING. The November 12 Gathering will be held at Hillcrest UMC on Lafayette Boulevard. We will have the opportunity to welcome the men from FE-84 into our community. We will also commission the women's talk room team. Come worship with your Emmaus family.

THE WOMEN'S WALK. The women's walk is upon us! Please pray about how you can serve the women on this walk, especially through the prayer vigil and as a prayer partner. Plan to come out to Camp Happyland to support the pilgrim and team. Let's show them some love!

THE MEN'S WALK. FE-84 is complete and God was alive! The testimony at Closing was powerful and we thank God for working through our community to guide the 20 pilgrims closer to Him. Come meet these men and hear their stories at the next Gathering.

PRAYERS. If you have a prayer request that needs immediate attention, email our Daily Prayer Chain (FredEmmausPrayers@Yahoo.com) to be lifted up by our prayer warriors. If you would like to be a member of this ministry, contact Dennis Warne (WarneDM@comcast.net).

THANKSGIVING. Thanksgiving is approaching quickly. Let us remember that this is not an easy, happy time for everyone. For many people, the holidays are a time of great difficulty and loneliness. Please reach out to those who may be struggling this year and let them know that God has not forgotten them.

DECOLORES! .Blessings to all ya'll.

YOU'RE INVITED

What: The Gathering of the Fredericksburg Emmaus Community
When: Saturday, November 12 at 3:30
Where: Hillcrest United Methodist Church on Lafayette Boulevard
Dress: Colorful

The Walk to Emmaus weekend is only one part of the journey. Please join your Emmaus family in fellowship at the monthly Gatherings, in support with a reunion group, and in service in the greater community.

DECOLORES

From the Community Spiritual Director

As I write this newsletter article, I feel pressed to address a growing concern within our Emmaus Community – that is the lack of participation by the community in all aspects of Fredericksburg Emmaus. 2 Chronicles 31:21 says “And every work that he undertook in the service of the house of God and in accordance with the law and the commandments, seeking his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.”

Spurgeon makes the following observation:

It is the general rule of the moral universe that those men prosper who do their work with all their hearts, while those are almost certain to fail who go to their labor leaving half their hearts behind them. God is not pleased to send wealth to those who will not dig in the field to find its hidden treasure. It is universally confessed that if a man would prosper, He must be diligent in business.

It is the same in religion as it is in other things. If you would prosper in your work for Jesus, let it be heart work and let it be done with all your heart. Put as much force, energy, heartiness, and earnestness into religion as you do into business for it deserves far more. The Holy Spirit helps our infirmities, but He does not encourage our idleness; He loves active believers.

I realize that many are busy with their own church activities to become too deeply involved in the Emmaus Community, and we do not want to interfere with your service to your own church. However, we just held our 84th walk to Emmaus in the Fredericksburg Emmaus Community. Even being conservative that is over 1600 individuals who have experienced an Emmaus weekend. Allowing for natural attrition and those who are busy on a given weekend, there should still be sufficient numbers of people able to attend a gathering that there would be “standing room only.” Further, how much time does it really take to make general agape for the pilgrims on the weekend? Remember how you felt when you saw the overwhelming amount of agape that was given to you at various times during your own Walk to Emmaus? Or Candlelight – remember how you felt when you came out of the talk-room and saw all of those people lined up to show you the face of Jesus on your weekend?

Again, I am not asking you to give up your service to your church to make Emmaus a priority, but I am asking that you seek the Lord as to what He would have you do to give back to the Community. It does not take a great deal of time to be involved if one is not serving on the board, or teaming for a weekend. A Gathering only happens once a month and only lasts a couple of hours – is that too much time to work for the Lord with all your heart? There are only four walks per-year, that’s four Candlelights, and four Closings, not a lot of time out of an entire year. And, how long does it take to produce a piece of general agape, one for each pilgrim and team member on the walk?

What I am asking each member of our community to do is to seek the Lord, ask Him what He would have you to do in the Emmaus Community, and then do that with all your heart and see how God prospers it. Let me close with this final thought from Spurgeon: “Wholeheartedness shows itself in perseverance; there may be failure at first, but the earnest worker will say, ‘It is the Lord’s work, and it must be done; my Lord has bidden me do it, and in His strength I will accomplish it.’” This is the Lord’s work, as He bids us do it, let us accomplish it in His name.

Community Notes

FE-85 is almost here!

Please VOLUNTEER to serve. The walks cannot run smoothly without us being the hands and feet of Christ. Please speak with the Lead Servant Rosemary Blankenship to see how you can best serve during the weekends.

Please SUPPORT the weekend events. Come out to greet the pilgrims on Thursday night, bless them with your love at Candlelight, and come hear their joy at Closing.

Please sign up for the 72-HOUR PRAYER VIGIL. Select a time and pray wherever you are at that time. The Prayer Vigil record is presented to the pilgrims as a form of agape. Please sign up so that every hour of the walk is covered in prayer.

Be a PRAYER PARTNER. Prayer Partners come to Camp Happyland and pray for specific speakers. Prayer Partners remain in the Prayer Chapel until the speaker has completed his or her talk. This is a wonderful form of agape for our team members.

Remember, the weekend needs all of us. Let’s bless our talk room and servant teams and the pilgrims with our service.

Fourth Day Testimony

Prior to my Emmaus Walk in the spring of 2004, I was a guy who thought he was living a good Christian life. For me, I went to church for 1 hour every Sunday morning then did whatever I wanted to do for the remaining hours of the week. I left God at my church and did not take Him with me as I walked out the door. After my Walk, I went to my Reunion Group that met at First Christian Church on historic Washington Ave. There, I started for the very first time bringing God with me during the week and not leaving Him stranded at my church. I got to describe my experiences for the week as they related to piety, study, and action. Also, I started to really learn how to pray, which was something that I had neglected for so many years. As Corrie Ten Boom once proclaimed, "I was now using God as my steering wheel instead of as my spare tire." I am now a member of Stafford Crossing's "Building Bridges" Reunion Group. Attending my group weekly, attending the monthly gatherings, and serving on Emmaus teams has kept my spiritual ship on course for the last 7 years! I pray that for the pilgrims of FE-84 and for all past and future pilgrims that their 4th Day experiences will be as filled with a lifetime of God's gracious blessings as it has been for me.
