Fourth Day Testimony

WOW! I was asked to share my experience as a first time teamer in the talk room on FE-91.

I really got to know the other teamers well and develop a caring bond with my brothers-in-Christ. The part I can't forget, (and I forget a lot), is the time spent with the pilgrims. Seeing God work in crazy, crazy ways in their lives in just 3 days and seeing the light bulb go on when they've got it!! It's so great to be used by God to help develop others. It's unforgettable. As I teamed God was also working in my life by remembering the talks and transforming my life. If you've ever wanted to team or thought about teaming, DO IT NOW! Before you forget about it.

God's working in your life to make Him real in the lives of others. God is counting on you and you are counting on Him.

DeColores!

Thoughts from the Community Lay Director

I hope you all had a wonderful Christmas.

I love that Christmas comes right before the start of a New Year. My focus is on Jesus, and his birth, why God sent him to the earth. Then I start to think of what I want to work harder on for the New Year. I don't necessarily make resolutions, but I do write in my journal what I want to improve through the next year that God has given us.

Between Christmas and the New Year, I go back and look at the things that I had listed for last year, I see how I have progressed, what things still need work, what things God has taken care of that I had not paid attention to. That happens more than you would think.

I had an English teacher in high school that recommended keeping a journal, for a semester he demanded we keep a journal. It was 75% of our grade. That was the beginning of a habit that became life long.

As you enter 2014, think about the things in your life that are between you and God. We all have those things that we could do differently, more time in the Bible, getting involved in a new or different ministry at your church, learn something new, or more quiet time with God. I could make a long list of the things that I would like to improve.

This year for Christmas, my daughter gave me a new violin. She is a very accomplished player, I on the other hand have not touched a violin in more years than I would like to confess. She was very thoughtful though, she bought an electric violin, so that when I am practicing, I can put in the ear phones, and I am the only one that can hear what I am playing. I think she was afraid I would practice when she was visiting. That present added relearning the violin on my list of things to do this year.

As you enter the New Year, I pray that it is a happy, healthy and productive year for each of you.

Please don't forget that the Spring Walks are coming soon. We need each of you to pray about sponsoring a pilgrim. Pastor Joe Reed prayed for a specific amount of pilgrims at the last Gathering. I have been repeating that prayer each day, that God would meet and increase the pilgrims, now we need to listen to what God is asking of each of us. Has he laid it on your heart to sponsor this Spring, to be his hands and feet to meet this prayer?

I pray that 2014 is a blessing for each of you, and that God walks through this year with you. May each of us remember to rely on him and to praise him.

Happy New Year!

A NEW YEAR OF BLESSINGS

As I write these words, there are only 9 days remaining in 2013! Where has this year gone? I have heard that comment from so many people—young and older alike. It has been a fast and full year with lots of blessings and lots of memories made. There have been happy times and sad times. There have been times of celebration and times of struggle. Now we are embarking on the new year of 2014. We don't know what this new year holds, but we know who holds the future, for we love and serve a God who is for us and who holds us in the palm of His hand.

One of my favorite verses of scripture is Jeremiah 29:11: "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." God spoke these words through the prophet Jeremiah to the people of Israel in exile in Babylon. Though they felt helpless and hopeless far away from their homeland, God was giving them hope and telling them that they had a future. God was assuring them that He was with them and that He would keep His promises to His people. In verses 12 and 13, God tells the Israelites, "Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart."

These words to the people of Israel through the prophet Jeremiah are good words to us as we begin a new year. God is with us and knows all about us. God has a future and a hope for us. God wants a relationship with us as we call upon Him and pray to Him and seek Him day by day. God promises that we will find Him when we seek Him with all our heart.

Many of us may be making New Year's resolutions. I hope that those resolutions will include renewed or deepening commitments to our Lord and His church. God has blessed us so abundantly in the past, and He will bless us in the future. God loves us with an everlasting love. He showed us the full extent of His love in the gift and sacrifice of His Son Jesus. Let us enter this new year with confidence and assurance, for we have God's promise of a future and a hope!

Blessings,
Nancy McDaniel

4th Day Testimony Request

The 4th day committee wants your 4th day testimonies. They don't have to be long, just tell us what God's doing in your 4th day, or how teaming, sponsoring, being involved in a reunion group, or attending monthly gatherings has changed your life. We will review it and if accepted, include it in the newsletter on a monthly basis. So if you'd like to share with us how God has used your Emmaus experience in any of these areas, please email your testimony to Cam Noden at: twonodens@juno.com for review. I'll be looking forward to hearing from you!
